

Kulanu.org

grassroots • all-volunteer • not-for-profit

A Jewish organization connecting communities around the world.
The Abayudaya Jewish Community of Uganda & Kulanu need your help. Working hand in hand

Photos © E. Chaya Weinstein • joyofcolor@gmail.com

- Kulanu shares skills • administers grants • builds classrooms
 - trains US volunteers • supports 2 Abayudaya schools
 - feeds 400 hungry African children a day
 - brings water, sanitation and electricity
 - provides health & literacy education
 - created the Abayudaya micro credit business loan fund
 - the "Jewish Life in Uganda Tour & Safari" &
 - the "Mirambe Kawomera " Interfaith Coffee Project
- Abayudaya crafts and music CDs available at www.kulanuboutique.com

10 years of experience working in Africa
Direct action volunteers
Your donation goes so very far

Donate online at Kulanu.org or mail check payable to:

Kulanu

c/o Harriet Bograd, Treasurer,
165 West End Ave. 3R, New York, NY 10023 • 212-877-8082
Be involved.

laura@laurawetzler.com • harriet@kulanu.org

"Never doubt whether a small group of thoughtful, committed citizens can change the world. Indeed it's the only thing that ever has." Margaret Mead