

“one of the best albums of new Jewish music in the past decade... establishes Wetzler in the forefront of the rich, exciting renaissance of contemporary Jewish music. Laura does a terrific job of presenting a focused, coherent overview of Jewish music’s span and scope...carefully annotated... A masterful work of folklore and scholarship, as well as a beautifully performed work of original, traditionally based music...”

Seth Rogovoy, Author, The Complete Klezmer,
WAMC Northeast Public Radio

“Impressive poetic gifts.”
New York Times Radio

“Laura Wetzler aims to promote a sense of Jewish-ness among Jews of diverse backgrounds and interests...”
Detroit Jewish Times

“...pure vocal ecstasy! Multi-talented, award winning singer-songwriter Laura Wetzler triumphs...”
Judy Caplan Ginsburgh, Jewish Entertainment Resources

“Sensational.” Kulanu.org

“All the rebbes and kabbalists are shepping nachas...Reminds me of Reb. Shlomo Carlebach in her versatility and ability to sing for all kinds of audiences and bring people closer. I absolutely love this CD... spectacular mix of music... voice and music so vibrant and alive... she speaks to my neshoma.”

Rebbetzin Garner, WSIA, NYC

“Laura brings a special warmth and heymishness”
Jewish Currents Magazine

“Great music...sounds beautiful on the air adds a new dimension to my program.” Barry Reisman WNWR, Philadelphia

“In a time of renewed interest in traditional music, there are only a handful of singers who can really perform the enormously sophisticated and varied styles of Jewish music from around the world. Laura is one who is keeping the flame alive – an amazingly gifted singer, songwriter and ethnic folklorist.”

David Amram, composer/conductor

“simple beauty and big ideas unified here by Wetzler’s beautiful voice.” Daily Hampshire Gazette

“Laura’s engaging spirit comes through in everything she does, whether singing her own material or drawing from other sources. She is at home in all the Jewish mediums: Israeli Hebrew; the Sephardic and Mizraki traditions; Yiddish; Contemporary Folk; and American classics. Musical time spent with Laura Wetzler is time very well spent.”

Rabbi Balfour Brickner,
Stephen Wise Free Synagogue, NYC

“On fire! - A fun, ecstatic explosion of Black and Jewish creativity”

3 Arrows Concerts, NY

Laura Wetzler & Janiece Thompson, two powerfully gifted solo artists rooted lovingly in their respective traditions, present this unusual joint concert inspired by the folk, sacred and pop repertoires of diverse African-American and Jewish communities. Featuring exciting high-energy music from the U.S., Mid-east, Africa, Europe and Asia sung in English, Hebrew, Judeo-Spanish, Yiddish and Amharic (Ethiopian), “Jewels of the Diaspora” is a moving musical performance exploring both difference and commonality with mutual respect & joy.

ASCAP Award winning singer-songwriter
Laura Wetzler tours internationally in over 150 concert, lecture, TV and radio appearances each year, singing World Jewish Roots Music, original Contemporary Folk and the Great Classics of American Song. Laura is the daughter of a synagogue musician and began singing and teaching Jewish music in New York at the age of 15. Today, her CDs Songwriter's Notebook and Kabbalah Music: Songs of the Jewish Mystics, (available from amazon, soundswrite, cdbaby, and jewishmusic.com) receive rave reviews and airplay on over 600 radio stations all over the world. Laura's 24 different music programs, sung in Hebrew, Yiddish, Ladino, and English, feature beautiful songs in wonderful renditions. Created for both adults and/or children, presented solo or with her band, they are fun, unique, well-researched explorations of our multi-cultural Jewish heritage through Jewish music, new and old. Laura has shared stages with such artists as Pete Seeger, David Amram, The Klezmatics, Odetta, Richie Havens, and many others. She has appeared in NYC's top clubs, cabarets, and concert halls and in hundreds of special events nationwide. She has been featured on UPN TV, at Jewishculture.com, Jewishcommunity.com, Jewz.com The NY Jewish Week and in Moment, Lilith, Hadassah, Jewish Currents, and Sing Out! Magazines. Laura recently returned from a song-sharing visit with Jewish communities in Uganda and Ethiopia.
